

Please protect the First Amendment rights of all our citizens. Do not allow media conglomerates to own more radio and television stations than they now own. In fact, you should cut back on the number of stations they can own in one market--and even across the nation. Please remember that the air waves belong to the public. Protect the public trust and the public's need to hear as many voices as possible.

Sincerely,
Barbara J. Brett